Ladies Win Sweepers

Miss Dolores Andicochea, 4231 W. 177th St., and Miss Billie Brown, 17020 Falda St., were recently awarded carpet sweepers in a poll conducted by a New York firm. The poll was part of a national contest held by some 4000 fashion show directors.

is a 12-member forum of younger bank officers, formed to aid senior management. Among its many duties, the council considers suggestions and new plans for bettering service submitted by the bank's more than 26,000 employees and makes cash awards for the best of them.

Foster has been with the bank for the past 11 years. He started as a messenger in 1949 and quickly rose to officer status in 1954. He took his post at Broadway-Seventh, less than two years ago.

He is a graduate of Narbonne High School in Lomita and the American Institute of Banking. He has taken an active part in Church of the Nazarene, both in Torrance and throughout southern California.

Bill Sanchez, mechanic for Evens Motors, 1611 Border Ave., told police yesterday a man he described as about 20 years old, attempted to hold him up at the Border Ave. address.

The assailant had a gun wrapped in a sweater, Sanchez said.

Earlier, police checked out and finally labeled unfounded a call placed to the California Bank saying the downtown Torrance branch here would be robbed at 6 p.m. Friday.

The anonymous tip was passed along to Torrance police by Lowell Hopkins, chief special agent for the bank.

Vandals Strike 16 City Schools During Quarter

Vandals entered 16 city schools causing damage totaling nearly $1000 and took material valued at nearly $500 during the second quarter of the current year, members of the board of education were told this week.

Included among the damages reported at the 16 schools were 205 broken windows, six damaged doors or locks, three broken light fixtures, three torn books, food and stones thrown on floors, walls, and furniture, and a telephone demolished.

Items stolen included name letters from front of school, three tape recorders, two radio tubes, a fire extinguisher, and small amounts of money.

The report was made to the board by S. E. Waldrip, assistant superintendent for business.

Civitan Club To Hear Talk At Meeting

The Torrance Civitan Club will here a talk, "Gasman Save My Cat," by Miss Marjorie Sewell, specialist in communications for women's clubs for the Southern California Gas Co., at the dinner meeting Wednesday, Sept. 7.

This meeting will be held at the Palms Restaurant at 7:30 p.m.

A former high school teacher of speech, English, history and journalism, Miss Sewell has spoken before service and civic clubs throughout Southern California. In addition, she was for two years the top-ranking woman in intercollegiate speech competition during her undergraduate days at Pepperdine College.

In "Gasman Save My Cat," Miss Sewell will deal with humorous incidents in the lives of gas company men and women here in the Torrance area.

This marks the 227th consecutive dividend payment.

New State Building Set to Open

Offices of the California Department of Employment will begin moving next Friday from their temporary home at 2007 Carson St. into the newly completed State building at 1220 Engracia Ave.

Manager Murray Love said the move would be made without interrupting service, and that on and after Monday, Aug. 29, the department would be open for business at the Cravens-Engracia location.

The new building will be the first public State building in the city, it was indicated. In addition to the Department of Employment, the building will contain an office for Assemblyman Vincent Thomas of the 68th Assembly District.

New Code Adopted

The Civil Engineers and Land Surveyors Assn. has adopted a policy stating that it would be considered unprofessional "to invite proposals for the performance of engineering or surveying or to state a price for such services in response to any such invitation." Mayor Albert Isen was informed this week.
